

Session 3 - The Legacy Question

What story do I want to tell?

You write the story of your life, one decision at a time.

The righteous who walks in his integrity— blessed are his children after him!

Prov. 20:7 ESV

For family discussion

What part of Joseph's story stands out to you the most?

Why?

What other stories in the Bible include specific decisions that determined the conclusion of the story?

Who do we know that has a legacy that is worthy?

Who do we know that has a legacy that brings honor to God?

Who do we know that has an amazing testimony?

Your story determines your reputation.

Do you have a "reputation" at school?

What reputation do you want to have?

What decisions do you have to stick to in order to achieve that reputation?

Your story will be written in chapters, would you consider that you are now in the beginning, middle or end of a chapter?

Why? Is there a decision you have to make, or did make, that determines the outcome?

Do you know anyone whose story, through no fault of their own, set them up to write a story characterized by bitterness and resentment, but they decided their story in a healthy direction?
